GOLD Credit Union GOLD eStatements and Notices

Terms and Conditions Agreements

By accepting the terms below, you agree to receive your periodic account statements online through our GOLD eStatements from this point forward. Your online statements may include the periodic account and transaction activity for your deposit and loan accounts; notices for insufficient funds, certificate maturity, IRS Information Returns, other similar account notices, and any disclosures.

We will send you an e-mail when your monthly statement or account notice is available for review, as well as a link to our website to access and view these documents. To update your contact information for purposes of eStatements and Notices, change your e-mail by clicking on the Options Tab in Online Banking, sending a secured message or by calling us.

You will need Adobe Acrobat Reader software to read your statements and IRS Information Returns, which can be downloaded at no charge from the GOLD e-Statement registration screen. You will be able to access your statements and other documents online for a period of twelve (12) months. You also have the option to download or print the documents for your future reference.

You have the right to request and receive your statements and other documents in paper form. If you want a paper copy of your statement or other document after you have given your consent to receive GOLD eStatements, please contact the Credit Union by secure message through Online Banking or call us at 484-223-4200.

You may withdraw your consent to receive online statements at any time. Contact the Credit Union by secure message through Online Banking or call us at 484-223-4200. There is no fees or account restrictions for choosing to withdraw your consent for online statements.
